

Mompreneur of the year

IN Burlington congratulates Julie Cole, co-founder of Burlington-based Mabel's Labels, which won the SavvyMom Mompreneur the Year Award. Mabel's Labels beat out more than 400 other mom-run businesses in an online reader's choice contest which ran throughout the summer. In addition to the award, which was announced on CTV's Canada AM October 25, Mabel's Labels received an $18,000 prize package comprised of cash, office equipment and business advisory services designed to take the winning business to the next level.

"Our proudest achievement is the day we quit our day jobs and began running Mabel's Labels full-time," said Cole. "We choose to live as dynamic business owners, enthusiastic mothers and inspired women, and this award is a fantastic recognition of that."